This registration form should be returned to the League Office, the details of which are on the Registration Process information Sheet on www.buafl.net A further copy should be lodged with the Athletic Union which the team represents.

The players and coaches on an Alumni team should also ensure that a registration spreadsheet is completed and returned appropriately. Details of this process are on the Registration Process Information Sheet.

All players and coaches must be insured for games. In order to process payment the League will charge the teams for the registration of Alumni players.

In signing this form you acknowledge that you are aware that a fee will be charged for your registration and that this registration period is for one week only and includes only one game. You also agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the British American Football Association.

The insurance is the basic BAFA provision. Enhanced coverage can be found via the 'Welfare' tab on www.bafa.org.uk
